12/15/2009

Meeting began. Welcomed guest and new members took a moment of silence for Penny's grandson.

Sam Ceballos was awarded a certificate for artist of the month.

Officer's reports:

President- Barbara Lancaster: Talked about upcoming events at the Rainier Market possibly in March 2010. Also Kathleen Johnson is working on something for our club. We don't know what yet. But all the momentum is exciting.

Vice President- Vicki Carstens and Jeanette Mahoney: Absent

Secretary – Angela Ankenman: Talked about the library exhibit has new information: Set up time is early we will have a two hour window for members to drop off their art work. There will be opportunity to hang we will have a display case. I would recommend submitting two pieces or just one if it is large. I would also recommend bringing the second if you do have a large painting or photo, we will put it in if we have room.

The time suggested to display is 9-11 am. If you can not get there at that time please make arrangements for your work to do so. There will be a card by your painting We will not have room for lengthy bio's so we have decided to just keep the cards simple and they will be numbered. This allows for a list on a separate sheet where it will list the painting and the price if it is for sale. If no price is submitted then it will read NFS (not for sale).

Treasure- Doris: Gave treasurer report.

Following the meeting we enjoyed a Christmas Potluck Dinner. Everything was delicious. It was great getting to chat.

We did not vote on Artist of the month this time because this meeting was early in the month and that would only allow Terrie's art work to be up for half of a month. So we will vote at the next meeting. We talked about the voting and each month calls for new work this means if you can't submit the same work twice. This keeps us as artists' producing more it is meant to be a challenge.

In addition to this if you are selected it is your responsibility to send Randy Lancaster an e mail with a photo of the work. As soon as possible this allows him to get it up on the web site. Also Barbara will send it to the paper. If the work is not sent the previous artist will be featured.
